Day single or return tickets: Ticket prices for journeys between two stations within London Fare Zones area are determined by the zones travelled in and through. Different prices apply for journeys that are wholly between stations on London Underground routes, and those that include, or permit travel on London Underground and/or Docklands Light Railway (DLR) services.

Tickets between any two National Rail stations, either or both of which are outside the London Fare Zones area, and that are valid for travel 'via London', include the cost of transfer between London mainline terminals, and other designated interchanges, by Underground, DLR or First Capital Connect services via Thameslink.

Travelcards: For unlimited travel on National Rail, Underground and DLR services within the zones, and on the day(s) for which the ticket is valid. Irrespective of the zones for which they are issued, Travelcards can be used on most London buses (except some special services and excursions), and when valid in Zones 3, 4, 5 or 6 (or any combination of these zones) can be used through Croydon, Tramlink, *Travelcards are NOT valid at all on Heathrow Express, or on Heathrow Connect services between Hayes & Harlington and Heathrow.

For ticket price and journey information ask at your local station, telephone National Rail Enquiries on 08457 48 49 50, or visit: www.nationalrail.co.uk

NOTES: This map is a guide to services provided by the train operators on weekdays but does not guarantee direct trains between the stations shown; some peak period services are omitted.

A few services do not operate and some stations are not served in the early mornings and late evenings, or at weekends and on public holidays.
Improvement work to track and signalling can affect services and may apply for extended periods in some instances. It is recommended that journey details are checked prior to travel.
